Keeping up with Uncle Moishe by Al Zuckerman

I talked to Uncle Moishe this evening and here is a story he told me if you have room in the newsletter.

Uncle Moishe was in a reminiscing mood last week when I talked to him on the phone. He asked me if I remembered his Uncle Mordecai who came to the Bronx to visit from Poland when my cousins and I were young. Unc said they took Mordecai to the Daitch supermarket on 174th St. Unc wanted to impress him with the variety of foods in America so they walked up and down the aisles.

"Moishe, vas diss powdered orange juice?", Mordecai asked. Uncle Moishe told him that you just add a little water and you have orange juice.

In the next aisle his uncle stopped and pointed, "Und vas diss, diss powdered milk?" Unc told him that you just add water to the powder and you get milk.

A couple of aisles later, Mordecai points excitedly, "Moishela, und give a look to here, baby powder! Vat a country, dis eez, vat a country".

Acknowledgements

Board member Andrea Mazer affixes the mezuzah for the new Center.

Many Thanks

- Rose Novak for dedicating hours of her time to help prepare the space for the new center. And for also underwriting the food for the Open House.
- Christine Schuller for helping organize the new space.
- Susie Blasko for mailing invites the old fashioned way, snail mail.
- Judd Grossman for hanging the curtain rod and bolting down everything in sight.
- Shannon Troxler

It takes a village, and a little money

It's finally happened, the JH Jewish Community has a home, a place to hold modest worship services, cultural events, study sessions, Bet Sefer and who knows, maybe even yoga. It's not fancy, nor is it big, but it's a warm, beautiful room - and a first step towards bringing the JHJC under one roof, forever.

The JHJC Board decided that it was time to allocate the financial resources needed to invest in this momentous move. Here's an itemized list of expenses and if you would like to support the new Jackson Hole Jewish Community Center, please consider contributing toward some of these expenses:

- Furniture $4,000
- Window treatments $1,000
- JHJCC sign $450
- Bathroom remodel $375
- Moving expenses $1,000
- Lighting $1,000
- Kitchen $750

A lot of volunteers and money were needed to create the new Center.

Spirit of the Mountains Summer Camp 2013

Registration materials will be ready in mid- March and if you are interested in enrolling your child in the JHJC's fun summer camp please request materials by emailing: info@jhjewishcommunity.org.

Camp will be held the weeks of July 22 and July 29, 2013, M-F, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Old Wilson School House in Wilson.

Scenes From February

Thank you for loaning us her wonderful artwork for the new center.

- Jessica Rutzick for donating children's books.
- Bet Sefer students for helping out with the Open House preparations.
- Al Zuckerman, Judd Grossman and Andrea Mazer (and Matt!) for helping hang the sign and curtain track.
- Shawn, Mike, Holden and Vivian Daus for hosting Challah Shabbat at their beautiful home. Sorry we made such a mess.
- Josh Kleyman for leading us at Challah Shabbat.

Yahrzeits

- Lydia Ross (March 2) beloved wife of Stewart Ross.

Please send us your Mazel Tovs, Condolences, Kol HaKavods, Get Wells and photos of your Jewish Pets to:

Furry Farewells

"Dogs are not our whole life

BEFORE: First look at the new space back in December, yuck.

AFTER: Ron Novak testing out the new digs (and the wine) on our opening night.

Dogs are not our whole life,
but they make our lives whole."
