Keeping up with Uncle Moishe by Al Zuckerman

So, to escape the Polar Vortex, Uncle Moishe and my Aunt were visiting their good friends, the Kaplans, who for many years lived two floors below them in the Bronx but had recently taken to spending the winters in Florida. While they were visiting them, Unc attended their shul with them on Shabbous.

On the first Shabbous Rabbi Blume announced that his sermon the following week would be on the sin of lying and to help everyone to understand it better he asked them to read Leviticus, Chapter 28. The week came and went, and Unc was enjoying the warm Florida sun. On the following Shabbous Rabbi Blume asked, "Nu, how many of you read Leviticus, Chapter 28 since last week?" Unc looked around the shul as many hands went up. Uncle Moishe smiled as the Rabbi then gently chided his congregation, "My friends, Leviticus only has 27 chapters. I will now proceed with my sermon on the sin of lying."

mention that Lisa Finkelstein is recovering from foot surgery. Keep David Goldfarb in your thoughts.

by YO MISS! Using the art of theatre and music, YO MISS! is an eye and ear-witness account of one artist navigating a maze of miscommunications and memories, while breaking down assumptions that divide residents of a city who live in close proximity but come from conflicting worlds. In YO MISS! Sloan remixes a lifetime of stories and transforms into a multitude of characters, in this sometimes funny, sometimes sad, always truth-seeking performance accompanied by beatboxer Chesney Snow and violist Adam Hill. Co-sponsored by the JH Jewish Community Center. Performances at the Pink Garter Theatre, tickets and details HERE.

- Upcoming events in February:
 - Shabbat at the Center - March 7. Stay tuned.
 - Shabbat at the Center - March 21. Stay tuned.
